

DAILY PRAYER DIARY NOVEMBER 2011

“Trust in Him at all times; you people; pour out your heart before Him; God is a refuge for us Ps. 62:8

MON 7th	Give thanks for: The good response to the Blythswood Shoebox Appeal and the donations given to assist with transport. PRAY for: Each child and adult who will receive their box asking God to bless them and awaken in them His love for them. Continue to Pray: God’s provision for Blythswood as they seek to share the gospel in many ways and see men, women and children come to faith in Jesus. Pray for: Those involved in Christian missions, relief and development agencies and local churches caring for children at risk in the poorest parts of the world keeping them safe and healthy, providing education and preparing them to play an active part in shaping their futures.
TUES 8th	Pray for: Our ministerial team day by day that God would minister to them as they have need and make them a blessing to those they meet, especially as they visit the sick, housebound and the bereaved; may God speak through them to bring words of comfort, hope and encouragement. “What a friend we have in Jesus, all our sins and grief to bear! What a privilege to carry, everything to God in prayer!” Give thanks: That no matter where we are or what situation we may be facing Jesus is only a prayer away.
WED 9th	Give thanks for: Our Church Officer Mervyn Gibson, and his years of service as he draws towards his retirement- for his dedication of service. Praise God for: Janice serving in the office -for her willingness, even under pressure of time, to help and fulfil a multitude of tasks and for Brian Conn filling in as cleaner who is always ready to go the extra mile. UPHOLD in Prayer: The two N. Ireland Tearfund teams who are travelling to Haiti and Uganda and Rwanda. May God use the Medical Group in a mighty way in Haiti and the Business Group who will be interactive with two projects. Give thanks: That God will use these professionals to bring His Kingdom values with long term effects and see lives transformed and potential fulfilled.
THUR 10th	PCI Home Mission: Pray for: Urban Mission Gathering in Ravenhill Presbyterian Church today; Robin Fairbain as he prepares to speak at Nettlefield Primary School tomorrow; Irene Younge ,BMI Personnel Committee Convener; Rev. Brian Colvin, Convener of the Strategy for Mission Committee; The vacant Home Mission Congregation of Naas and Richie Cronin, Irish Mission Worker in Dun Laoghaire
FRI 11th	PCI: NEPAL: Pray for: Joe and Janet Campbell as they visit Nepal over the next couple of weeks: Health, strength and energy during their busy visit. As Joe facilitates a workshop today with the Micah Network Nepal and he and Janet speak tomorrow Saturday at the Nepali church they attended while serving in Nepal, also preparations for next week’s programme; Pray: They would know God’s guidance in all they do and that their visit will be helpful and encouraging to all they meet. Kenya: Tuum: Stephen Cowan continues with a busy schedule of deputation on his short home assignment while Angelina and the children remain in Kenya: Peace between different tribal groups around the Tuum area and for improved security. Continue to pray for: The problems regarding the leadership of Tuum Girl’s Secondary School. Remember the girls who continue to be a taught at the school.
SAT 12th	The Secret Children: Around the world the secret children are disposable: Pray for: Children suffering for their faith in Jesus Christ, may God hide them under the shelter of His wings and protect them from violent extremists, especially in N Korea, Nigeria, Colombia and Pakistan to name but a few. A prayer for the children. “Good Father God, remember Your followers; Children deprived of love, joy and peace. Guard them and save them, give them Your healing. Show us Your strength, show us once again. Father, Son, Spirit, remember Your followers; Bands of believers, defying defeat. Unite us with them and build up Your kingdom, Show us Your strength, show us once again. Amen.” “Power and strength belong to our God forever and ever! Amen!” Rev. 7: 12
SUN 13th	Remembrance Sunday; “Lord God, we remember with thanks the sacrifice, courage and commitment of servicemen and women who have suffered and died in wars past and present Please give comfort and peace to those who live with injuries, their carers and loved ones who have been bereaved. Amen“ Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down ones` life for his friends. John 15: 13 Continue to Pray for: All still serving in Afghanistan and Iraq
